

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

ESTEBAN QUIROZ,)	CASE NO. C11-196-JCC-MAT
Plaintiff,)
v.)	ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
STEVE JEWITT, et al. ,)
Defendants.)
_____)

The Clerk of Court informed plaintiff Esteban Quiroz about a deficiency in his application to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”) and that if he did not correct it by March 7, 2011, his case would be subject to dismissal. (Dkt. 2.) In response, plaintiff states (1) he has been unable to secure the necessary supporting documents because the prison has been unresponsive, (2) that because he has only seven months more before his release, the Court “can cancel [this matter] if you wish.” (Dkt. 4, at 1.) Plaintiff thus suggests both that the prison is responsible for any inability to correct the deficiencies in his IFP application and that he is considering abandoning his case altogether.

Plaintiff is ordered to show cause by April 11, 2011, why this matter should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. Plaintiff may adequately respond to this show-cause order

01 by (1) correcting the deficiency in his IFP application, or (2) filing a notice of voluntary
02 dismissal, or (3) paying the civil filing fee or explaining why he should be afforded additional 03 time to correct the deficiency in his IFP application. Should plaintiff fail to respond to this
04 show-cause order, the Court may recommend dismissal for failure to prosecute and for failure
05 to comply with a court order.

06 DATED this 9th day of March, 2011.
